And it happened on the night of the full red moon — The Chiroptera® universe was invaded by the “Reds”.

On that night of the bloody mooning, Amorphelia — the reigning queen of the divergent era, asked herself silently, “Who will save my people?” - as she looked down from a blackened atmosphere of the late night fog, where Gamma rays of light shone through a thickened sheet of the perfect white clouds suspending in between worlds.

Elucidating the Chiroptera® macrocosm from the process of a reversed system of being and the conceptual idea of the divergence into a sophisticated mech-animalist behavior, describing a “futura” world — a world embodying technical system wear.

A conceptual collection WITH a total of 37 looks consisting of various introductions of intricate pattern work, kaleidoscope pattern cuts and combinations, while further exploring inter—connections between unusual entities; organism and geometrism.

The Spring Summer 2024 RTW Couture Collection show will introduce sculptural couture pieces, the EKUUS X-01 Shoes and a line—up of sophisticated prêt-à-porter pieces, which consists a variety of usual textures and materials — from processed vegan leather, suede, denim, FAUX FUR and KNITS against unusual textures — recycled plastiCS and metals — A further artistic exploration of a mech-animalist wear. Which I TERM “alien couture”.

THE EVENT WILL BE STRICTLY RESERVED SEATING WITH REFRESHMENTS AVAILABLE BEFORE AND AFTER THE SHOW AND DURING THE AFTER PARTY.

ALL INVITED GUESTS MUST ARRIVE IN THEIR BEST ALL BLACK ATTIRE - HIGHLIGHTING THE ALL BLACK COLOR STYLE CODE OF BERLIN
