New York City, New York Aug 22, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - The iLead Law Group, P.C. (www.iLeadlaw.com), a newly launched multi-specialty law firm held a grand opening ceremony at the Harvard Club of New York City in partnership with the Asian American Attorneys Association (www.AAAUSA.com), the iLead Line, Inc. and Community Legal Aid Center on Aug 19th. In attendance were over 300 senior executives and leaders from high-value companies and acclaimed organizations across the American legal, business, and political landscapes.

iLead Law Group, P.C. has built a stellar corporate law practice, providing a suite of sophisticated services to help clients navigate the complex ecosystem of US and international corporate law and has significant breadth and depth of expertise in several critical areas including mergers and acquisitions, restructuring, IPO, investments and trade.

“We are driven by our core values of integrity, professionalism, and our client-first approach. Through our two pillars of innovation and leadership, we aim to become a one-stop solution for our clients.” Explained the Managing Partner Adam Chen.

iLead Law Group, P.C. is already attracting some of the best legal talent in the industry and the team roster includes highly qualified and experienced lawyers with degrees from the best international universities and deep experience in important markets including New York City, London, Tokyo, and Hong Kong.

“The strength of our legal team is the foundation of our organization’s commitment to clients. All members of iLead Law adhere to the highest standards of client service and each team member has a sense of belonging and pride in representing iLead Law Group, P.C.” said Adam Chen.

In addition, iLead Law Group, P.C. highlighted the depth of experience of their litigation practice and network of experts with demonstrated ability in handling complex litigations. iLead Law has strong expertise in areas like intellectual property, trusts, estate planning, elder law, and immigration.

“iLead has assembled an impressive litigation team to handle high profile challenging cases including complex corporate issues and intellectual property disputes.” Said Adam.

iLead Law Group, P.C. is also strongly committed to the growth of the business ecosystem in New York City and helping create new opportunities for entrepreneurs. To support the business community, iLead Law and the Asian American Attorneys Association (“AAAA”) have established the “Fifth Avenue Entrepreneurs Club” (FAEC), an innovative platform aimed at empowering and growing the entrepreneurial ecosystem in New York. The Club will host a diverse range of activities including innovation salons, technology forums, and industry seminars in addition to collaborations with business schools and innovation centers.

“The Fifth Avenue Entrepreneurs Club leverages the benefits of legal risk management and industry expertise to bring together the finest entrepreneurial resources in New York and support a rich business creation and growth ecosystem. FAEC will foster the spirit of innovation and leadership and will focus on the young generation to help them achieve their dreams. The Club is committed to social responsibility and will actively participate in charities and community services, contributing to the development of our city and country.” said the Secretary General of the Club Siemson Yang.

During the event speeches were given by several prominent community leaders, local representatives, entrepreneurs, lawyers, and senior business executives, including New York State Senator Brian Kavanagh, New York State Assemblyman Lester Chang, and New York City Mayor Office’s representatives. Among the topics presented were critical areas for community, business, and economic revitalization in New York City. The speakers recognized and praised iLead Law’s deep commitment to supporting local communities.

In his closing remarks, iLead Line, Inc.’s CEO Colin Miao stated that iLead Law Group, P.C. looks forward to a future built on the commitment to putting clients first, maintaining the highest quality in service standards and a culture of continuous and rigorous improvement to deliver the best outcomes for clients.

The iLead Law Group, P.C. Opening Ceremony ran for 2 hours and was an overwhelming success. Attendees were impressed by the vision, mission, and capabilities presented by iLead Law’s senior leadership. iLead Law is well-positioned to be a critical and valued partner for clients in New York, the US, and internationally in the years to come.
