Anesthesiology is the medical specialty concerned with the total perioperative care of patients before, during, and after surgery. It encompasses anesthesia, intensive care medicine, critical emergency medicine, and pain medicine. Anesthesiologists have the primary responsibility of monitoring the patient's vital signs during surgery. In addition to basic measurements such as pulse, blood pressure, and temperature, they measure the patient's respiration.

In honor of his achievements, Dr. Umer was named to the Honors List for Fall 2014, Spring 2015, Fall 2016, and Spring 2016 by Fairleigh Dickinson University. He has also been named University Honor Scholar, Florham Scholar in Biology, Youth Delegate, and Tylenol Future Caregivers Scholarship Semifinalist, among others.
