

Lifestyle Event Designs is Redefining Events with the Goddess-Inspired Floral Mannequin Collection

Felicia Luca's Enchanting Collection Creates an Unparalleled Ambiance No Other Decor Can Achieve, Generating Smiles from People of All Ages

to move ever so quickly, the Goddess-Inspired Floral Mannequin Collection has arrived, captivating everyone with its own unique charm. It is the crown jewel within Lifestyle Event Designs, an enchanting party decor rental company. This divine assortment, crafted by the youthful spirit of Felicia Luca, truly captures the essence of celebratory allure and is redefining event decor boundaries, setting new standards of elegance and artistry. Her innovative creations seamlessly merge elements of fashion, art, floral, and stone design, with sustainability in mind. The result is a spellbinding experience as each stunning goddess representative of a Greek goddess, enchants attendees at all types of events. The captivating experience fuses together history and enchantment, while charming and bringing smiles to all ages at corporate galas, weddings, birthdays, product launches, and special events.

1. Goddess-Inspired Floral Mannequin Collection: The divine centerpiece of Felicia's designs is meticulously crafted mannequins combining floral, stone, shells, and beads. They captivate those who view them to contemplate mythology and ancient times while igniting conversations. They create an unparalleled ambiance wherever they are featured that no other decor piece can replicate. Photo ops abound!

2. Attention to Detail: With the passion and creativity ignited by her parents and aunts, Felicia embraces sustainability creating her designs with many repurposed items and unique elements such as pampas grass, and Lunaria which she grows and dries herself. Her creative vision and focus on details have earned her accolades at elegant occasions, family gatherings, and at various business, mall, and hotel locations.

3. Inspiring Journey: Felicia's journey began with a pivotal moment - a brain tumor diagnosis that prompted her departure from the corporate world where she held the position as manager for health and wellness events and director of brand partnerships nationwide. Supported by her husband and children she embarked on a path of healing. Then, with their encouragement, she decided to pursue her lifelong passion for decor design and founded Lifestyle Event Designs, a celebrated business offering stunning and sophisticated event decor with the purpose to spread joy and smiles to people of all ages.

Felicia shares "My vision is to make people stop, smile, and contemplate their lives through my designs. Each piece is a labor of love, evoking emotions and sparking imagination. I believe that every event should be an unforgettable experience, leaving guests with cherished memories they will carry with them forever."

Lifestyle Event Designs' enchanting party decor rental company was founded a mere 8 months ago when Felicia Luca took the leap into entrepreneurship, determined to share her lifelong passion for decor designs, outside her family circle. The unique party decor continuously charms audiences on special occasions and at various business, mall, and lobby locations.
