In his line of work, Dr. Armstrong provides customized health services tailored to the needs and goals of each unique client. He also offers telemedicine visits for clients all over the world and in-office visits for the greater Houston area.

Seeing both children and adults, Dr. Armstrong spends time with each client to find and address the root cause of any health problem, not just cover up symptoms. He combines holistic and natural healing with some of the best of what modern medicine has to offer, to treat the whole person and restore the best possible health.

Conditions that Dr. Armstrong and Rising Earth Medicine can help with include, but are not limited to: digestive health, obesity, allergies, chronic pain, heart disease, fertility, menopause, autoimmune disease, hormone balance, sleep, mental/emotional health, chronic fatigue syndrome, mold, and lyme disease.

To help find the root cause of a health problem, Dr. Armstrong uses leading-edge functional medicine testing in addition to standard medical tests and blood-work. To restore the best possible health, depending on what is needed, he may use herbal medicine, homeopathy, nutrition, natural supplements, exercise, lifestyle, and more.

Academically, Dr. Armstrong received his Bachelor's Degree in Psychology with Magna Cum Laude honors from San Diego State University in 2007. He then went on to receive his Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine Degree upon completing a four-year medical program at the Southwest College of Naturopathic Medicine in Tempe, Arizona in 2013.

Since then, he has practiced in a primary care family practice setting and a leading-edge longevity and optimal wellness-focused clinic.

The practice of naturopathic medicine includes modern and traditional, scientific, and empirical methods. Naturopathic medicine is a distinct primary health care profession, emphasizing prevention, treatment, and optimal health through the use of therapeutic methods and substances that encourage individuals' inherent self-healing process.

The state of Texas does not currently license Naturopathic Doctors. Dr. Armstrong holds his Naturopathic Doctor License in the state of Washington and acts in Texas as a wellness consultant, not as a physician (MD, DO). Therefore, Dr. Armstrong and Rising Earth Medicine do not claim to diagnose, treat, or prevent illness or disease. Rather, Dr. Armstrong works with people (not diseases) to restore optimal health and wellness.
