Renaissance artist readies the third installment in the album series.

PROMO RETRO

-Rapper and songwriter, NDEFRU, today announced the final recording phase for Blue Ether Sound 3. The 8 track album features long-time collaborator 35th Beats for the first time on the series and previously released singles "Dirty Street Traffic" produced by Poe Mack and "Systems" produced by Ohbliv.

The aforementioned 35th Beats crafts the tracks "Trappin Cross Da Water" and "Nobody Cares" with his signature synth heavy rhythmic percussions. NDEFRU glides over the notes with a descriptive narrative that has become the artist's specialization.

Rounding out the production is B.Hawk, artist and producer with Bad Human Art Haus whose hard-hitting boom bap and dizzying samples provide the raw soundscape for NDEFRU's organic wordplay. Hawk is also a tenured rapper with razor-sharp bars tailored to both features on his productions "Deities and Tyrants" and "Wings of an Angel".

With several independent albums, including the archetypal Richmond Gas, NDEFRU has enhanced his divergent discography with tapes, CDs, and downloadable waves. Blue Ether Sound 3 is poised to be the first in the series to be pressed as a compact disc. His discography can be found at
