

Supermodel and Actress Aria Walton Stuns on a Billboard Campaign for Melvolente in New York's Times Square.

New York City, New York Aug 10, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Stunning supermodel and actress Aria Walton recently turned heads in New York when she appeared on a billboard campaign in none other than the world-renowned Times Square for the ever-growing leather footwear brand Melvolente.

Melissa Sierra, the founder of Melvolente says her footwear label is inspired by Latin American roots. It's considered a fusion of ancestral era concepts with a fun futuristic style twist. Sierra considers her shoes art and explains they are handcrafted in Colombia by Colombian artisans who are passionate about making their artisan work prevail in time for the future.

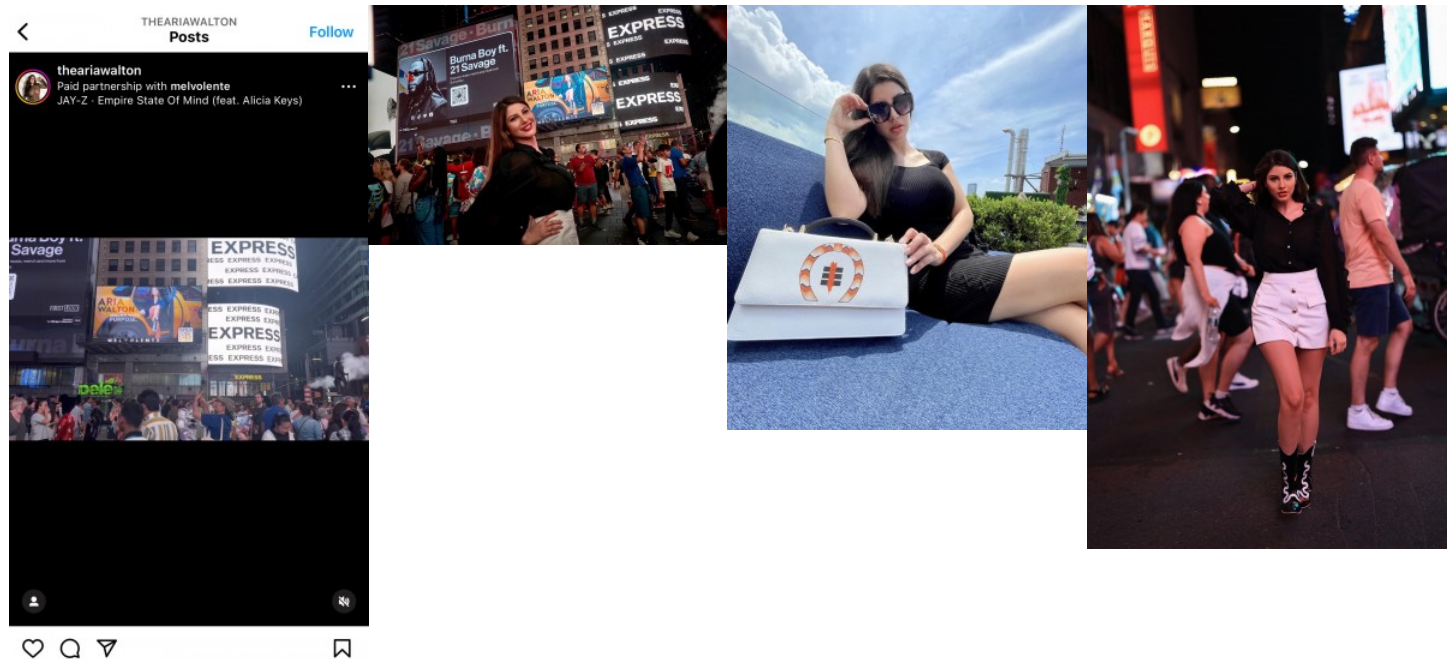

Walton is captured photographed for the billboard in a very "New York minute" style moment. She appears to be stepping out of a typical yellow cab in busy NYC while wearing the Viva-Elva pure leather cow-boots by Melvolente. The boots can be found at The Canvas Store in Westfield mall at World Trade Center in Manhattan.

In an instagram post made by the model and actress, she looks happy and excited to be celebrating this big success right in Times Square next to the designer, while the billboard campaign flashes behind them. No doubt, this is one of the biggest moments, thus far, in the career of the international model who has recently been dabbling in some acting, with her movie Zombie Town (directed by Peter Lepeniotes, and produced by Mark Holdom and John Gillespie), coming out in theatres in Canada on August 18th first, and then in theatres in the US in September, all while constantly streaming on Hulu amongst other big TV networks internationally.
