

Valentina Cappetta, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Specializing in matching people with property, Valentina takes great pride in guiding her clients towards fulfilling their real estate dreams.

New York City, New York Sep 6, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Valentina is a licensed real estate agent with McBride Realty Group, LLC in Debary, Florida.

Her primary focus is on residential and land properties, assisting clients with all aspects of residential real estate, including waterfront and luxury homes.

After High School, she went to pursue a degree in Nursing at Valencia College in 2016, But quickly realized short after she was meant for something more, and decided to dive into the retail world at only 18 years old.

Valentina's professional journey began in the car industry in late 2016, where she worked as a receptionist for a few months and quickly moved up to be one of the youngest female salespersons at 18. She worked a few years in the Industry when she met her now husband Mark in 2017 and had a beautiful Daughter named Adalyn at the beginning of April 2019. She decided to step down from the car industry to care for her daughter when Valentina was just 21 years old and quickly returned back after 6 months and officially retired from selling cars 1 year after to focus on her daughter due to the hectic schedule of business.

A few years later, she decided to go back to work in the car business as a Service Advisor at Bill Ray Nissan (March 2021 - May 2021), and as a Customer Service Advisor at Sport Mazda North (May 2021 - January 2023).

However, after becoming a mother, many things changed and time became essential to Valentina so she decided to transition into real estate to gain back the time she was missing spending countless hours in an office while still managing to do what she loved, which was helping people.

Her ultimate goal is to meet the needs of her clients and provide them with valuable assistance.

In affiliation with several professional organizations, Valentina is a member of the Florida Association of Realtors, the National Association of Realtors, and VCAR.

Attributing her success to her family, and her husband who is her loving and supportive rock, always there to encourage and uplift her. Her father and older brother, who inspired her in the field of sales, have been a guiding force in her professional life.

Above all, Valentina strives to set an example for her daughter, showing her the importance of being a strong woman with a meaningful career.
