BETWEEN 5TH AND 6TH ST NEAR BROADWAY

Lorain, Ohio Sep 12, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Bravenn DeHill, a musician, singer, and songwriter known for his soulful vocals and emotive lyrics, announced today that he will give his first live performance. His live set takes place on Saturday, September 16th, during the FireFish Festival in conjunction with Speak Lounge at the Art Alley between 5th and 6th streets of Broadway in Lorain, Ohio. In February 2021, Bravenn signed a record deal with ProducerLife Records, a subsidiary of ProducerLife, which is a global end-to-end platform that monetizes content for recording artists and record labels.

DeHill has gained popularity in recent months with the release of his single "One of a Kind," which showcases his powerful yet intimate vocal style and ability to connect with listeners through storytelling and the track has been licensed on a TV show streamed on Netflix. His music incorporates influences from soul, reggaeton, hip-hop, acoustic pop, and country. "I'm really excited to connect with fans and the community of Lorain in person for the first time," said DeHill. "There's an energy at live shows that you just can't replicate in the studio." I'm looking forward to sharing my music, hearing people sing along, and building that personal connection.

FireFish is an all-ages festival on September 16th, with DeHill taking the Art Alley stage around 10:30 p.m. Tickets are not needed, as FireFish is a free community event. Bravenn plans to donate any proceeds from merch sales to benefit LorainLatinos.com, a nonprofit created by Lorain Clothing that celebrates the Lorain, Ohio, Latino Experience. "We're thrilled to have Bravenn who is our lead artist, do his first live show in his hometown," said Tito Tahan, record executive, and founder at ProducerLife. "He's an incredible talent and human being, This is going to be an intimate, memorable night for music fans in Lorain County."

DeHill has been writing and recording music since the age of 19. His soulful pop sound and resonant songwriting explore themes of love, relationships, personal growth, and mental awareness. He has been playing the drums since he was a youth at his local Cornerstone United Methodist church.
