Ahmedabad, Gujarat Sep 29, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Dr Twinkal Patel, President of the women's wing of Akhand Bharat Rashtravadi Seva Dal, was awarded the Bharat Bhushan Navratna Award 2023 and invited as a guest at Akhand Bharat Rashtravadi Seva Dal and Umiya Science College, Ahmedabad. The Akhand Bharat Rashtravadi Seva Dal invited her on Aug 28th while she was invited as a guest to address the girls of Umiya Science College on August 7.

Dr. Twinkal enriched the college community, fostering knowledge exchange and inspiring students with her expertise and insights. Regardless, she is known to conduct such workshops and seminars on varying subjects that must be addressed. She also especially feels encouraged to share her insights on such topics among the youth since she believes the youth shapes the world.

On talking about the seminar at Umiya Science College, Dr. Twinkal said, "I had the opportunity to address my views on varied topics such as physical, mental and emotional health along with spiritual well-being; I also covered aspects of managing women's health challenges and how we should see our life. I want to heartily thank Shree Chetana for inviting me as a speaker and giving me such a wonderful platform to enlighten our youth.

On speaking about being invited as a guest at Akhand Bharat Rashtravadi Seva Dal, Dr. Twinkal Patel stated, "I feel honoured to have been invited as a guest at Akhand Bharat Rashtravadi Seva Dal, Gujarat. I am grateful to the dignitaries who hosted me and my fellow attendees."

Dr. Twinkal's vision, skill, and commitment to bettering society makes her a social activist and entrepreneur. Moreover, she is a member of the government's NSS National & state award selection committee & Green Belt life coach, a drug awareness speaker at NCB, and a health and wellness speaker at NSS. So she keeps conducting seminars on burning issues, including mental health issues, drug abuse, environment and ecology, and women's health and empowerment, in collaboration with Motherhood Foundation, and strives to improve society.
