Lodi, Sep 5, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Up and rising Silicon Valley music star, Punish is back with another extremely prolific release. The concoction of his brilliant narration and his flawless music styles makes his songs extremely engaging. Being an aspiring artist, his recent release 'Crossed Out Like Jesus' will give you some seasoned musical vibes. Spending most of his striving days with no major recording labels supporting his skills now has two independent recording companies Thug World and T.N.T.B., and their joint forces are giving some exquisitely exciting releases.

Born in Missouri and Punish was raised in the Silicon Valley, of East Side San Jose in El Rancho Verde. His passion for hip-hop has driven him this far and it is evident that he has the potential to become one of the eminent faces of the Hip-hop genre. His songs are charmingly assorted and brilliantly formed with various subgenres like Rap, R$b Gangster, powerful street, and club music. He has confessed that he is not a Ken follower of God because he truly believes in the higher power and this song 'Crossed Out Like Jesus' is his way of resonating with the higher power.

After this enlightening release, he also dropped another compelling track called 'Check Yo Mouth'. His CCA Anthem venture, 'Rijden Tot De Morgen Komt' alongside Adje and The Partysquad will grab your attention instantly. Apart from that he also has songs like 'Kill Em All', 'The Lead', 'Murder', 'I Can't Breathe', 'We're Coming', 'Losing Your Life', 'Credit Cards', along with many other compelling releases. He is a humanitarian whose motto is to "Believe and Trust Nothing That Breathes." For more glimpses of this brilliant artist, you can find him on Spotify and Apple Music.
