

Georgia Production Partnership Forms Partnership with Serendipity Labs, Artisan Haus

Atlanta, Georgia Sep 12, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - In an effort to further networking opportunities in the entertainment industry, Serendipity Labs, Artisan Haus, and Georgia Production Partnership (GPP) have come together to form a partnership. From its inception in 1995, members of GPP have gathered for monthly meetings, panels, and workshops at a variety of locations in and around Atlanta. The partnership with Serendipity Labs and Artisan Haus will offer impressive spaces for networking and educational events.

“We are thrilled this opportunity has presented itself,” says LaRonda Sutton, co-president of GPP. “Our organization continues to grow, and this partnership will increase the capacity for professionals to interact and connect.”

Serendipity Labs is a hospitality-based company that offers flexible space and workable solutions. With 38 locations nationwide, the company is poised for further growth and expansion. The professional and welcoming edifices include sophisticated furnishings, frosted glass for privacy, sound attenuation, spacious offices, and a hub of highly hosted workplaces designed to cater to the needs of today’s workforce. Currently, Serendipity Labs has four locations in the Atlanta area.

“Our alignment with GPP will offer numerous possibilities for industry professionals,” says Christopher Miller, the area general manager for Serendipity Labs. “We expect a viable, vibrant relationship with GPP and Artisan Haus that will continue to grow.”

Artisan Haus founder and owner, Andrei Leon, has worked in the real estate industry for many years and says the partnership will also help remove financial and economic barriers. “We are all connected to the city of Atlanta, and at its core of creativity and the arts, both newcomers and native Georgians can grow.”

About Serendipity Labs

Serendipity Labs was founded in 2011 with a vision to build a network of inviting, inspirational workplaces, combining state-of-the-art design, technology, and security with the highest service level standards to deliver a consistent and peerless workplace experience through company-owned and managed locations in over 30 urban and suburban locations across the country. The development partners are invested in their local communities and trust the company to manage and operate upscale, professional flexible offices infused with hospitality that will animate their assets and help local businesses thrive.

About Georgia Production Partnership

Georgia Production Partnership is a non-profit coalition of companies and individuals who are active in Georgia's film, video, music, and interactive game industries. Since 1995, GPP's priority has been to protect the production tax incentive and strengthen the industry. The organization is the first entertainment coalition of its kind that created the Georgia tax incentive and continues to play a critical role in defending the program. Its mission is to continue to serve as the voice of Georgia's entertainment industry.
