Along this journey, he has formed strong bonds with numerous remarkable individuals who have become his most ardent advocates. His commitment to his client's satisfaction is evident in the numerous referrals he receives.

He attributes his success in the real estate industry to his unwavering commitment to staying current on market trends and developments. His dedication to continuous learning ensures that he can provide clients with the most up-to-date and effective strategies for buying and selling properties.

Before establishing himself as a successful realtor, Greg spent over 25 years in corporate management, where he honed invaluable skills in leadership, communication, and negotiation – skills that he now expertly applies to benefit his real estate clients.

On a more personal note, he and his wife, Loris, have been happily married for 36 years. Both graduates of Donegal High School and Lock Haven, they've raised a loving family together. Loris recently retired from a fulfilling career as a teacher for physically and mentally challenged children.

The Grogan family's commitment to education and community service is deeply ingrained, and they devote much of their energy to their children and grandchildren. In addition to their own children, Greg and Loris also raised their niece, Angela Selby Urban, who now serves as a registered nurse specializing in pediatric care.
