

Innovate with September's Exclusive Ingredient Specials

Bulk Ingredients On Sale This Month

Clifton, New Jersey Sep 4, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Ecuadorian Rainforest, a leading wholesale supplier of natural ingredients, is excited to unveil its September Ingredients Specials. This month's selection features a range of premium ingredients, each with unique commercial applications across various industries.

Amla Powder: Harvested from the verdant landscapes of India, Amla Powder is derived from the fruit of the Emblica Officinalis plant. This natural ingredient boasts a tangy flavor profile and a rich green color, making it a versatile choice for various commercial applications. Amla Powder is recognized for its potential nutrient content, contributing to its appeal in industries such as cosmetics, dietary supplements, and personal care products.

Lemon Powder: Sourced from the sunny groves of citrus-rich regions, Lemon Powder is derived from the zesty Citrus Limon fruit. Its vibrant yellow color and unmistakable citrusy aroma make it a popular choice across industries such as beverages, confectionery, and skincare. Lemon Powder is valued for its potential to enhance the sensory experiences of products, offering a burst of invigorating fragrance and color.

Hibiscus Flower Powder: Originating from tropical climates, Hibiscus Flower Powder is obtained from the Hibiscus Sabdariffa plant. Its deep red hue and distinct tartness lend themselves to a variety of applications within the food and beverage, cosmetics, and natural coloring industries. The visually appealing color and unique flavor of Hibiscus Flower Powder make it a sought-after ingredient for creative product formulations.

Passion Fruit Powder: Cultivated in lush environments, Passion Fruit Powder is derived from the Passiflora Sp. fruit. With its alluring orange color and exotic aroma, this ingredient finds its way into beverages, desserts, and cosmetics. The potential nutrients within Passion Fruit Powder contribute to its desirability for products aimed at promoting sensory indulgence and a touch of tropical allure.
