

Luanne Marshall, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

With Luanne, clients can expect a personalized, white-glove service, as well as access to a wide range of resources, including contractors and landscapers.

New York City, New York Sep 5, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - An energetic, hard-working realtor associate at Nan & Company Properties, Luanne brings an abundance of knowledge, expertise, and enthusiasm into every aspect of her work.

As a Houston native, she possesses extensive knowledge of various neighborhoods in the area, with a particular emphasis on areas within the loop, Memorial, Sugar Land, and West Houston. Her adept analysis of the ever-changing Houston market enables her to provide exceptional service to her clients by staying up-to-date with market trends.

Academically, Luanne earned her Bachelor of Science Degree from Baylor University and her Master of Business Administration Degree from the University of St. Thomas.

Right from the beginning, she embarked on her real estate journey with a singular focus: prioritizing the needs of her clients above all else. Luanne is a dynamic and diligent professional who is quick on her feet and meticulous in her approach to serving clients, regardless of their financial circumstances.

Tech savvy, she uses a variety of apps to help in the selling and buying process. Luanne is a highly effective communicator who promptly responds to calls, texts, and emails, ensuring that her clients are consistently kept informed through weekly market updates. She embraces the relationship of business partners with her sellers as she strives to get top dollar for their home based on her experience and knowledge of the market.

“Whether you are selling your current home, seeking a new one or relocating to Houston, together we will transform your dreams into reality. If you can envision it, you can achieve it” affirms Luanne.

By actively listening to her clients, she is able to fully understand their unique situations and goals, enabling her to provide the best possible assistance. Her motivation in real estate stems not from monetary gain, but from the opportunity to meet and assist people. Luanne consistently goes above and beyond for her clients and takes great pleasure in hosting client appreciation parties.

Among her professional affiliations, she is an active member of the Houston Association of Realtors, the Texas Association of Realtors, and the National Association of Realtors.

Drawing from her 18 years of teaching experience and running her own business, Luanne holds an impressive network and a results-driven mindset. She attributes her success to her meticulous attention to detail and organizational skills. Additionally, her affable nature and genuine concern for her clients’ best interests allow her to establish genuine and meaningful connections with them.

This combination has been instrumental in her success in the real estate industry, earning her accolades such as the Rookie of the Year Award in her first year as a realtor, as well as numerous “Top Ten Producer” and “Multi-million Dollar Producer” awards throughout her career.

Delivering world-class customer service, Luanne actively volunteers her time and continues to expand her knowledge through involvement in various professional organizations and charitable endeavors.

When she is not working, she enjoys working out at the Houstonian Club and Spa, traveling, and spending quality time with her husband and family.
