

Corey Feldman guitarist Christine Carol will not be able to stand trial againsts Ron Jeremy.

Los Angeles, California Nov 15, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Corey Feldman guitar player Christine Carol from former band Corey Feldman and the Angel's is outraged that she will not be able to step forward against adult entertainment star Ron Jeremy since a California judge has declared Jeremy incompetent to stand trial. It is reported that in November 2020 Carol has spoken to the Los Angeles District Attorney's sex crimes division as one of Jeremys groping victims. Carol claims allegedly that she was sexually assaulted on two different occasions at a certain Hollywood bar and grill. Carol was in attendance at the disclosed location with a member from the band Motley Crue who will remain nameless. Carol claims she was sitting at a table and excused herself to go to the restroom on her way to the restroom she came across adult entertainment star Ron Jeremy and decided to approach him with the intention of evangelizing the name of Christ. While speaking to Jeremy he then started to grope her breast.

The second assault occurred on March 9th, 2020 the night of Corey Feldman's release of his documentary "Truth the Rape of two Corey's" screening which took place in the Director Guild of America. After the red carpet premiere, the Feldman camp celebrated the release of the film in the form of an after-party at the same Hollywood bar and grill. It was a star-studded after party Carol was in attendance partaking in the festivities and taking photos with her music industry peers. Towards the end of the party allegedly Carol claims she was talking to adult entertainment star Ron Jeremy and asked a random passerby if they can take a photo while the photos were being taken Jeremy once again started groping Carol this time slipping his hand into her dress top groping her entire bare breast this assault was caught on camera producing damning photographic evidence.

It is reported that Carol has attempted to seek legal representation on this matter and has even consulted with high profile attorney Gloria Allred in the matter. It is unclear what roll Christine Carol was going take on the trials she would have either been a victim or character witness of Ron Jeremy state of mind at the time of the sexual assaults. It was noted by the Feldman camp that Ron was not invited and not part of the film release, the photos were then turned over to the Los Angeles District Attorney sex crimes division and not yet to be released to the public. There has been no official statement from the Feldman camp on the matter, Carol herself has since released a statement stating "When you are on a mission to take down Hollywood pedophilia and sexual predators, it's very ironic that on the day of the release of a film on that very subject, it then happens to you."
