This year's theme is "70's Disco Glam", inviting attendees to don their finest 70's attire and groove to the beats of the past as they elevate the lives of South Florida children and families. For over four decades, Kids In Distress has remained steadfast in its mission to prevent child abuse, preserve families, and provide essential care to children who have experienced abuse and neglect. "Elevate" encapsulates the very essence of this mission, bringing together business leaders, philanthropists, and difference-makers to uplift the lives of marginalized and at-risk children and families in South Florida.

Join us in making a profound difference and elevating the lives of those who need it most. Tickets are available here, and donations can be made directly to Kids In Distress through our donation link. Sponsorship opportunities are still available.
