Occupational therapy is a healthcare profession that involves the use of assessment and intervention to develop, recover, or maintain the meaningful activities, or occupations, of individuals, groups, or communities. Occupational therapists are health care professionals specializing in occupational therapy and occupational science. OTs and occupational therapy assistants use scientific bases and a holistic perspective to promote a person's ability to fulfill their daily routines and roles.

Having actively engaged in several volunteer roles to make a positive impact, Mackangelo dedicated nine months, from September 2019 to May 2020, to the Healthcare Careers Outreach Program as a Student Volunteer.
