New York City, New York Oct 5, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A board-certified family physician, Dr. Ajah has made it his life's mission to provide comprehensive healthcare services that cater to individuals of all ages. His practice goes far beyond the traditional realms of diagnosing and treating illnesses; it extends into the vital realm of preventive care, embracing routine checkups, diagnostic tests, and personalized guidance on maintaining a healthy lifestyle. His expertise is a blend of medical knowledge and compassionate care, offering patients the assurance of a doctor who genuinely cares about their health and happiness.

Before embarking on his professional journey, he commenced his path to healing at the University of Nigeria Faculty of Medicine, where he earned his Bachelor's degree and graduated as a proud member of the Class of 1994. His pursuit of medical excellence led him to New York, where he completed his residency in Family Medicine at New York Medical College at St. Joseph's Medical Center from 2000 to 2003.

In his professional experience, Dr. Ajah's commitment to delivering exceptional healthcare extends to his hospital affiliations, where he collaborates with esteemed medical institutions. He is affiliated with Long Island Jewish Valley Stream, NYC Health + Hospitals / Queens, and Wyckoff Heights Medical Center, further underscoring his dedication to providing top-tier medical care to his patients.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
