

Play House: The New Artist for EDM

Paris-Based DJ Shines Light on Copyright-Free Music for Content Creators

Paris, France Oct 26, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Play House embarked on a musical journey that would soon captivate the hearts of thousands with his passion for electronic music at age 28. Now, at 30, Play House has already produced over 20 singles, each one reflecting his diverse and ever-changing musical moods.

Play House's music is a unique blend of EDM, house music, techno, and electro, and one thing that sets him apart from the crowd is his unwavering commitment to making his music accessible to all. With a philosophy that champions inclusivity and creativity, Play House's tracks are not only free to download but also free to use, making them a popular choice for content creators looking for high-quality, non-copyrighted music.

Play House's mission goes beyond just creating beats and melodies; it's about enabling content creators to use his music in videos, streams, and projects without any copyright restrictions. This unique approach has garnered him a devoted fanbase who appreciate both the music and the message behind it.

Despite being a rising star in the electronic music scene, Play House remains down-to-earth and focused on his art. His anecdote about creating music as a means to battle depression and to nurture his passion is a testament to his authenticity as an artist.

Looking forward, Play House has exciting plans for 2024, including new releases that will continue to offer a wide range of sounds and emotions. His goal is clear: to spread the word to all those seeking non-copyrighted music, making it easy for creators to add a captivating soundtrack to their projects.

With thousands of streams and a loyal, devoted fanbase, Play House's music journey is one to watch. Join the movement of non-copyrighted music with Play House, and experience the boundless creativity that knows no boundaries.
