Get to know Physician Assistant, Shayla M. Arceneaux, who serves patients in Texas.

New York City, New York Oct 26, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Shayla is a certified physician assistant currently affiliated with Advanced Dermatology, the leading dermatology practice in the Houston area. The practice offers cosmetic, medical, and surgical dermatology to patients in Houston, Katy, Sugar Land and the surrounding areas of Texas. Some of the many services available at Advanced Dermatology include Botox®, platelet-rich plasma therapy, dermal fillers, laser hair removal, acne treatment, and psoriasis treatment.

Hailing from her hometown of Houston, Texas, she embarked on her journey in healthcare by earning her Bachelor of Science degree in Biology at Texas Southern University. Her unwavering commitment to advancing her knowledge and skills led her to pursue a Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies from A.T. Still University in Mesa, Arizona.

Upon completing her rigorous Physician Assistant Studies, Shayla felt a strong pull to return to her roots in Houston. Since then, she has wholeheartedly devoted herself to the pursuit of excellence in medical and cosmetic dermatology. Her profound passion for her profession and a keen interest in various skin conditions have been the driving force behind her relentless pursuit of the latest innovations, treatments, and techniques in the field. She has consistently sought out advanced training programs, attended informative lectures, and engaged in hands-on clinical patient care to stay at the forefront of her field.

One of her most remarkable qualities is her compassionate approach to patient care. Her dedication to treating patients with respect and diseases with her profound clinical knowledge and extensive experience has earned her respect and admiration from both her patients and peers. She is particularly well-regarded as a cosmetic dermatology practitioner, thanks to her remarkable techniques with neurotoxins and fillers. Her ability to achieve natural-looking results has consistently garnered high praise and commendations from her patients and fellow professionals alike.

In addition to her clinical excellence, Shayla is an active and respected member of several prestigious professional associations, including the American Academy of Physician Assistants, the Texas Academy of Physician Assistants, and the Society of Dermatology Physician Assistants.

A Certified Physician Assistant (PA-C) is a healthcare practitioner who practices medicine in collaboration with physicians. They examine patients, prescribe medicine, and order diagnostic tests. In most cases, they work under the supervision of physicians or surgeons, but they can work more independently in some states, rural areas, and inner-city areas, consulting with physicians only when they need help with cases.

When Shayla isn't busy changing lives through her work, she enjoys a fulfilling personal life. She treasures spending time with her family and friends, always on the lookout for new and exciting experiences. Maintaining a healthy lifestyle is essential to her, and she makes time for regular exercise. She also has a deep love for travel, which allows her to explore new places and cultures, further enriching her life.
