

Starzz Unveils Exciting Announcements first listing in Coinstore Exchange in 10 days

Future Listing on BitMart, NFT Launch with Sport1, Polygon Network, and More!

Saint George, Saint Vincent And The Grenadines Oct 18, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Starzz, the pioneering blockchain-based platform known for its innovative approaches to sports and entertainment, has announced a series of significant milestones set to redefine its future in 2023.

Coinstore Exchange Listing and IEO Starzz is on the verge of launching an exciting partnership with Coinstore Exchange. In addition to listing SRZ tokens, Starzz plans to do an Initial Exchange Offering (IEO) on October 23-24, 2023, and will be listed on October 27, 2023, in its platform. This will revolutionize the way users participate in token sales, making it a highly anticipated addition to the Starzz ecosystem.

Starzz is also thrilled to confirm its forthcoming listing aside from Coinstore on the renowned cryptocurrency exchange, BitMart. This partnership marks a significant step in expanding the reach and accessibility of Starzz's native token, SRZ. Holders and investors can soon expect seamless trading and enhanced liquidity.

In an exciting collaboration with Sport1, Starzz is launching a unique NFT. This NFT is exclusive and will offer a chance to gain VIP access to one-on-one interactions with Starzz and includes VIP Champions League tickets, bringing them closer to their favorite athletes, celebrities, and champions. This initiative represents a ground-breaking fusion of sports and entertainment, providing fans with unparalleled experiences and exclusive content.

In a strategic move towards scalability and efficiency, Starzz is transitioning from the Ethereum-based ERC-20 network to the Polygon Network, will reduce the total supply of SRZ tokens from 3 billion to 1 billion in enhancing token value and usability. Users can look forward to faster transactions, lower fees, and heightened security on the Polygon Network.

Starzz is excited to announce its new partnership with the Next Block Expo in Berlin, Germany as a Community Partner to expand its community outreach and foster stronger ties within the blockchain and sports industry. These developments underscore Starzz's commitment to creating a dynamic and engaging ecosystem for sports athletes, digital creator, celebrities, e-sports with their fans. The team at Starzz is enthusiastic about the opportunities that these changes will bring to its community and the industry as a whole.
