Get to know Nurse Practitioner Trent Carter, who serves patients in Roswell, New Mexico.

New York City, New York Oct 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Trent is an advanced practice registered nurse, board-certified family nurse practitioner, and certified addictions registered nurse - advanced practice backed by over a decade of hands-on experience across diverse clinical settings. He has consistently been at the forefront of delivering compassionate and evidence-based care to individuals facing addiction.

Recognized as a leading expert in addiction and recovery, Trent seamlessly blends his clinical expertise with an innate drive to enhance service delivery for those grappling with opioid and alcohol dependency. He is the visionary behind two groundbreaking enterprises, Renew Health and Curednation, both dedicated to breaking the cycle of addiction.

Renew Health is a full-service addiction treatment clinic in Roswell, New Mexico that specializes in assisting patients to overcome drug and alcohol abuse with in-person support, while Curednation is a nationwide telehealth platform designed to make addiction services accessible to individuals regardless of their location. Both entities share a common goal: treating addiction at its core rather than merely alleviating its symptoms. They offer a realistic path to recovery, consistently achieving high success rates and setting the “Gold Standard” for treatment.

Driven by a passion to destigmatize addiction and offer tangible solutions, Trent champions a holistic approach to treatment, viewing each patient as a unique individual with distinct needs. This patient-centered philosophy has been the foundation of his practice, leading to many success stories and a reputation for excellence.

Growing up in a small Texas town, Trent had always wanted to help people. He discovered his true calling in addiction treatment, where he finds ongoing opportunities to make a daily difference.

His educational journey took him through Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center and the University of Cincinnati College of Nursing, where he graduated with honors. His commitment to continuous learning keeps him abreast of the latest research and advancements in addiction medicine, ensuring that his patients receive the most up-to-date and effective treatments available.

Professionally, Trent is an active member of prestigious organizations, including the American Association of Nurse Practitioners, the American Society of Addiction Medicine, and the National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers.

Beyond his clinical practice, he is a fervent advocate for community outreach, emphasizing the critical importance of awareness and early intervention in preventing addiction. Trent tirelessly champions the cause of addiction medicine and endeavors to eliminate the stigma surrounding substance abuse. His numerous publications in various articles serve as a powerful testament to the message that recovery is attainable and support is always within reach.

Outside of work, Trent cherishes quality moments spent with family, creating memories and strengthening bonds. An avid advocate for a healthy lifestyle, he is passionate about regular exercise and the numerous benefits it brings, both mentally and physically.

Travel is another source of joy for Trent; exploring diverse cultures, savoring new cuisines, and encountering different perspectives enriches his worldview. This love for exploration extends to personal development as well. Always on a quest for self-progression, Trent continuously seeks avenues to grow, improve, and better himself, embodying a life of perpetual learning and evolution.

For those seeking a compassionate and expert partner in their recovery journey, Trent stands as a beacon of hope and a testament to the transformative power of dedicated healthcare.
