1592 in Daie Viet, immersing them in a world of adventure, danger, and love.

In this epic tale, the protagonist, Truong Van Ba, embarks on a treacherous journey to receive the coveted Jade Cross from a Chinese Master Cutter. As he navigates the perilous path, he encounters sub-hamlets and confronts threats ranging from robbers, murderers, and adversaries of the mystifying No Name Society, all vying for possession of this iconic artifact.

At one sub-hamlet, the story takes a twist as Van Ba is assigned a surprising companion, the spirited sixteen-year-old female guide, Thi Mot. Their initial aversion to each other sets the stage for a captivating dynamic that unfolds as they traverse a world of danger and intrigue.

As they overcome numerous hardships, an enduring connection takes root, making this journey not only one of peril but of self-discovery and unexpected romance.
