Choose Angel Culver, and you'll find a true advocate who will help you turn your real estate dreams into reality.

New York City, New York Nov 8, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Angel, a proud Wichitan, has embarked on a remarkable journey into the world of real estate at J.P. Weigand & Sons, Inc. Her success in this field is a testament to her unwavering work ethic, exceptional leadership abilities, and unwavering commitment to providing outstanding customer service.

Coming from a family of entrepreneurs, Angel learned the values of hard work, integrity, and going above and beyond from a young age. These values have become ingrained in her character and are not just business strategies, but a way of life. It was only natural for her to join Weigand, as she recognized the same standard of excellence that she was raised with within the company.

Angel's educational journey took her from Kapaun Mt. Carmel to the University of Kansas. After completing her studies, she joined her family's business. However, when she became a mother to two active children, she made the conscious decision to become a dedicated stay-at-home mom, prioritizing her family's needs.

As her children grew older, Angel knew it was time for a career change. Real estate had always intrigued her, fueled by her personal experiences of purchasing her first, second, and forever homes. She understood the potential a home holds and believed that with the right foundation, a house could become a personalized sanctuary. Her advice to potential homebuyers is simple yet powerful: "Don't limit yourself" when searching for a new home.

What truly captivates Angel is the vibrant city of Wichita itself. From the diverse shopping centers like Bradley Fair and Maize's Marketplace to the thrilling entertainment venues such as Chicken N' Pickle and Wind Surge games downtown, she is passionate about showcasing everything Wichita has to offer. She firmly believes that the city's roots and values make it the perfect place to raise a family.

Beyond her professional life, Angel is an enthusiastic fan of both the Jayhawks and the Shockers, displaying her love for sports and fitness. Her philosophy is straightforward but impactful: "Take care of the client before, during, and after the sale." To her, real estate transactions are not just about closing deals but about building lasting relationships. With boundless energy and a relentless dedication to her clients, Angel is ready to work tirelessly on their behalf and support them every step of the way.
