Establishing personal connections with her clients, Anne is committed to building meaningful relationships in the realm of real estate.

New York City, New York Nov 14, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Anne is an accomplished realtor associated with Compass in Morristown, New Jersey.

Holding esteemed designations as a Senior Real Estate Specialist (SRES) and Accredited Buyers'

Representative (ABR), Anne has carved out a niche as a knowledgeable professional in the realm of adult communities, particularly in Morris, Middlesex, and Somerset counties. Her primary focus revolves around guiding clients through the downsizing process, skillfully navigating the sale of their current homes and assisting them in discovering the ideal community for the next chapter of their lives.

Born and raised in Middlesex county, Anne's unique journey began with a Degree in Musical Theatre from NYU, leading her to an unexpected turn when she met her husband—a former accountant turned bandleader. Together, they raised four sons in Bergen County while creating beautiful music for an impressive 25 years.

A transformative decision to move into Canal Walk, a vibrant 55+ community in Somerset, marked a pivotal moment in Anne's life. This move ignited her passion for adult communities and inspired her to obtain a real estate license, embarking on a successful career dedicated to sharing the joy she found in this new lifestyle with her clients.

Driven by a mission to educate individuals on the seamless transition from “real life” to a more fulfilling “play life,” Anne firmly believes that adult communities should cater not only to older adults but also offer an enriching experience for younger individuals. To promote this perspective, she actively organizes various community functions, including a captivating variety show.

Approaching her career with humility, Anne selectively takes on projects where she can wholeheartedly dedicate her time and energy. Her genuine care for her clients and their overall well-being is evident, recognizing the emotional significance of purchasing a final home—comparable to the intensity experienced when buying a first home.

Her love for people remains the driving force behind her commitment to prioritizing their best interests, both in the short and long term.
