New York City, New York Nov 8, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - For over half a decade, Carrie has been an outstanding real estate professional at Class-Harlan Real Estate, dedicating herself to assisting clients in buying and selling homes across Bucks and Montgomery Counties. With a Bachelor of Science degree in Healthcare Management and Accounting from the esteemed University of Maryland, Carrie initially applied her expertise in these fields to the healthcare management industry, specifically within the nursing home sector. However, her life took a different turn, leading her to become the trusted realtor she is today.

Having resided in Doylestown, Pennsylvania for 27 years with her husband Rob and two boys, Carrie has deep roots within the community. She considers Doylestown not just a place to live, but a cherished home. After taking time off to raise her children, she re-entered the workforce, utilizing her business, accounting, management, customer relations, and organizational skills to reinvent herself professionally.

Her journey began as a bookkeeper for local businesses before venturing into entrepreneurship and establishing her own successful bookkeeping business, which she still manages part-time. A pivotal moment in her career came when she served as a bookkeeper for a private commercial real estate investor. This experience granted her invaluable insights into the intricacies of the real estate industry and overall business operations, sparking her passion for real estate and leading her to become a real estate agent.

Today, Carrie remains an influential figure in the business, local, and real estate communities. Her involvement in organizations such as the Doylestown Athletic Association, the Bucks County Chamber of Commerce's Women in Business Committee, and volunteering with the Doylestown Fire Co. #1 showcases her dedication to giving back.

What sets Carrie apart as a realtor is her unwavering passion for helping others navigate the complex world of real estate, particularly during significant life transitions. Her exceptional negotiation skills consistently yield the best sale prices for her clients, whether they are buying or selling. Additionally, Carrie holds the esteemed Senior Real Estate Specialist designation, signifying her expertise in addressing the unique needs of senior clients.

In every real estate transaction, Carrie brings to bear her boundless passion, meticulous attention to detail, unwavering commitment, and consummate professionalism. She firmly believes that building personal connections is the foundation of her success. Her clients are not mere transactions, but individuals and families entrusted to her care. She ensures that their real estate journeys are smooth, successful, and satisfying.
