Hollywood, California Dec 5, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - In a remarkable achievement for the television pilot "Silent Partners," created by Ciro Dapagio, the project has been officially selected to participate in the esteemed Dances with Films festival. This selection marks a significant milestone, as the festival is celebrated as one of the top ten film festivals in the United States by USA Today.

"Silent Partners," which brings together a dynamic cast and crew, is set to premiere on Friday, December 1, at the Regal Union Square Theater at 12:15 pm. The event promises to be a star-studded affair with the presence of Ciro Dapagio, the pilot's executive producer and lead actor, renowned for his role in the widely streamed film "The Mobking." Accompanying him will be director Jorge Jokes Yanes and several cast members, along with special guests.

The executive production team comprises Ciro Dapagio, Barry Jay Minoff, and Buffalo 8, with Diana Ramos Santiago Carter and Antoni Corone as Co-Producers. Their collective effort has culminated in a pilot that has not only captivated audiences but also garnered critical acclaim within the filmmaking community.

Getting selected for the Dances with Films festival is an arduous task, often challenging even for the world's top filmmakers. The inclusion of "Silent Partners" in this festival is a testament to the exceptional storytelling, compelling characters, and overall quality of production that Dapagio and his team have brought to the screen.

"We are incredibly excited and honored to be a part of such a prestigious festival," said Ciro Dapagio. "This is a validation of the hard work and dedication of our entire team. We can't wait to showcase 'Silent Partners' to the festival audience and bring our unique story to a wider platform."

The premiere of "Silent Partners" is not just a screening but a celebration of the art of filmmaking, a testament to the perseverance and talent of its creators, and an event that promises to leave a lasting impression on all who attend.
