

Inaugural Market for Missions Event This Weekend

Goal to raise $10,000 to give back to missions while entertaining gift-giving enthusiasts!

Greensboro, North Carolina Nov 6, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Front Street United Methodist Church invites the local community to their inaugural Market for Missions Holiday Vendor Market. The event will be on November 11, 2023, from 11:30 AM to 4 PM at Front Street United Methodist Church, Aldersgate Hall. The address is 136 South Fisher Street, Burlington, NC 27215.

The event will offer unique gifts for purchase, a bake sale, lunch by Wilber's BBQ for purchase, kid activities, and an appearance by Santa. They believe in supporting local artisans and entrepreneurs, vendors include the following:

- Smitty's Ice Cream
- Granolicious Granola
- Future and Family
- Personally Yours
- Glenda Crawford Art
- All That Jas
- Alamance Quilts
- Bear Food Peanuts
- Striplings Jerky/Sausage
- Wilber's BBQ and collards (Frozen)
- Laine Francis Art
- Anne Neilson's books

As an in-person event that will raise funds for local community, domestic, and global missions of Front Street United Methodist Church, we are happy to support missions like Habitat for Humanity Fund, Allied Churches of Alamance County, Out of the Garden- Fresh Mobile Markets, Positive Attitude Youth Center, Alamance Elder Care, Sustainable Alamance, Family Justice Center of Alamance County, Appalachia Service Project, Missionary Air Group, Mission of Hope - Haiti, and more!

"When we think of 'Missions' in our church, it is synonymous with service, prompting a thought to celebrate the birth of our savior while raising money for missions," says Event Director Suzie Lambeth. "We are honored to host this event, and the funds will greatly impact the lives of many."
