

North Of Tomorrow Treats Fans With the Melodically Stunning Sound Tune 'Late Again'

Wonderfully honest, melodic, and entertaining anthem 'Late Again' by the gigantic band North of Tomorrow is leaving listeners mesmerized with its poetic charm.

Los Angeles, Nov 22, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Kicking into the gear with the stunning alternative hit, the Phoenix's ever-intriguing dynamic band delivers the creatively free and musically refreshing sound tune 'Late Again'. North of Tomorrow is a rapidly rising band in the music scene, coming straight out of Phoenix, Arizona, composed of longtime friends and bandmates, Gary Adrian, Brian Mueller, and Stephen Rogers. As a follow-up to their sophomore release, 'Something Unexpected,' the band recently released their third album titled 'Clear as Can Be' on Melba Toast Records, featuring 12 well-played tracks that transcend genres. The musical philosophy of magnificent artists is to produce music that sounds and feels good, without being confined to one genre.

Moreover, immensely passionate about musicianship and sound quality, North of Tomorrow constantly strives to make fresh music, a little experimental, and stands up to repeated listens. Gary handles bass, pedals, vocals, and keyboards, while Brian is on guitar, keyboards, mellotron, loops, and lead vocals. Stephen provides background vocals and sonic analysis. The new album "Clear as Can Be" features musicians from Italy, France, England, Indonesia, Scotland, Spain, India, Australia, Argentina, Germany, Nashville, Boston, LA and Montreal. Raw guitars and boundless meandering rhythms meet with the personality of voice and vast poetic dreams to lead us into the musical delicacy. The structure often blurs the moods between spoken word and melody, the style is unpredictably familiar yet uncertain, and interestingly accessible.

Well, versatility is the key to the profound band and indeed throughout its catalog of musicals. Cinematically intense yet boosting and soothing the creators of the band smoothly blend genres without much effort, managed to produce an exceptionally beautiful and captivating soundtrack 'Late Again'. Melodically the track has a familiarly simple and engaging progression. The short verses have a strong impact on the music industry. The easily connected soundscape has a clear passion for the delivery with its unusual poetic lyricism. Several music scapes including 'Shakey Bones', 'At First Blush', 'Something Out of Nothing', and 'SuperExtraordinary' have managed to hit the hearts of the listeners hard and are available on Spotify and YouTube. Follow the prolific musicians of the band on Instagram and their website named 'northoftomorrow'.

Let's listen to North of Tomorrow's track 'Late Again' only on Spotify:

<https://open.spotify.com/track/4a79Bd3wSLuAnbODxwS7Ej>

Media Contact

The Tunes Club

info@thetunesclub.com

Source : North of Tomorrow

See on IssueWire