

Seedventure Limited Announces Investment in Delhi-Based Healthcare Startup Numa Healthcare

New Delhi, Delhi Nov 17, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Seedventure Limited, a leading venture firm, today announced an investment in Numa Healthcare, a Delhi-based healthcare startup that is developing innovative solutions to improve access to quality healthcare in India.

“We are excited to invest in Numa Healthcare,” said JASWANT SINGH, Managing Partner at Seed Venture Limited. “The company is addressing a critical need in India, and we believe that it has the potential to make a real difference in the lives of millions of people.”

The angle investment from Seed Venture Limited will be used to help Numa Healthcare accelerate its product development and expand its reach. Also helps them to open 10 new clinics at different locations in India

“We are grateful for the support of Seed Venture Limited,” said the founder of Numa Healthcare. “This investment will allow us to continue to develop our clinice and make it available to the people who need it most.”

About Numa Healthcare

Numa Healthcare, a leading healthcare provider in Delhi, is transforming the healthcare landscape in India by introducing a groundbreaking smart clinic model. The company is partnering with existing polyclinics across the country to upgrade their facilities with cutting-edge technology and equipment, while also establishing new smart clinics in underserved communities.

About Seed Venture Limited

Seed Venture Limited invests in early-stage technology startups that are developing innovative products or services. The firm is particularly interested in companies that are addressing significant market opportunities and have the potential to disrupt traditional industries.

In case anyone looking for Investment they may contact Seedventure limited at manager@seedventure.uk.

Media Contact

Seed venture Limited

manager@seedventure.uk

Source : Seedventure Limited

See on IssueWire