Jaipur, Rajasthan Dec 5, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Chauhan Production's first film "The Secret of Devkaali" is scheduled to release in 2024. This is going to be a very good thriller movie. Yes, believe me, 2024 will change the definition of thrill for you. Neha Soni, who is the writer of this movie, has written this story in such a way that all of you will not be able to take your eyes off the movie. And Chauhan Production is going to leave its mark in the film industry with its first production movie. What to say about Niraj Chauhan who is the main lead, he put his heart and soul into his character.

This movie has been shot in Mathura, Uttar Pradesh. There are so many great actors in this movie. So first of all in this article we talk about Mathura.

The star casts of this movie are: Niraj Chauhan, Mahesh Manjrekar, Sanjay Mishra, Zareena wahab, Prashant narayan

Mathura, The land associated with Radha-Krishna, primarily Vrindavan and Mathura in India, holds immense cultural and spiritual significance in Hinduism. These places are deeply rooted in the stories and legends surrounding the life and love of Lord Krishna and his consort Radha.

The allure of this region extends beyond its religious and spiritual importance. Over the years, filmmakers have been drawn to these locations due to their rich cultural heritage, picturesque landscapes, and the timeless tales of love and devotion associated with Radha-Krishna.

Several Bollywood and regional Indian films have been shot in and around Vrindavan and Mathura. The serene surroundings, ancient temples, and the palpable spiritual ambiance offer a unique backdrop that adds depth and authenticity to storytelling, especially when depicting narratives that revolve around love, devotion, and traditional Indian culture.

Filmmakers are often attracted to these areas not only for their aesthetic appeal but also for the emotional and cultural resonance that these places evoke. The spiritual connection and the mythical love story of Radha and Krishna have a universal appeal, making these locations a popular choice for filmmakers looking to capture the essence of these legends on screen.

Several Hindi films have been shot in and around Mathura, utilising its temples, streets, and landscapes to capture various aspects of the city's ambiance. Movies often use Mathura's cultural heritage, especially its temples and riverbanks, to depict traditional settings or specific narratives that align with the city's historical significance.

Movies like "PK," "Badrinath Ki Dulhania," "Luka Chuppi," and other Bollywood productions have featured scenes shot in Mathura or used it as part of their storytelling canvas. Additionally, regional cinema from Uttar Pradesh or neighbouring states might also have utilised Mathura's locations for their film shoots.

The number of movies shot in Mathura could have increased since then, as filmmakers frequently explore diverse locations for their storytelling. The allure of Mathura's cultural heritage and scenic beauty continues to attract filmmakers seeking authentic backdrops for their movies.

Devkaali is decorated with NSD (National School of Drama) brilliant artists. Most of the artists have been cast from NSD only.

Chauhan Production's first film 'The Secret of Devkali', full of suspense and thriller, is ready to hit the screens soon. The poster-teaser of this film has been released, which is exciting the fans. This film, made under the banner of Chauhan Production, is going to be released in Hindi in theatres across the world next year i.e. in 2024.
