Get to know Pediatric Critical Care Medicine Specialist Dr. Adalberto Torres, who serves patients in Lakeland, Florida.

New York City, New York Dec 28, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - A top professional in the field of pediatric critical care medicine, Dr. Torres tends to patients at Nemours Children's Specialty Care in Lakeland, Florida.

Throughout his academic career, he graduated with his medical degree from the University of Illinois College of Medicine in 1986 and completed his residency in pediatrics at the Loyola University Medical Center in 1989. He then went on to complete his fellowship in pediatric critical care medicine at the Children's Hospital of Wisconsin in 1992.

Passionate about his profession, the doctor is board-certified in pediatrics and pediatric critical care medicine by the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). The mission of the ABP is to advance child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

Achieving fellowship status, Dr. Torres is a Fellow of the American College of Critical Care Medicine (FCCM), and a Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics (FAAP).

Pediatrics is the branch of medicine that involves the medical care of infants, children, and adolescents. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends individuals be under pediatric care up to the age of 21. Pediatric critical care specialists treat children from birth through the teen years. They choose to make caring for children who are very sick the core of their medical practice. Their advanced training and experience prepare them to give children in PICUs the unique medical care that they need.
