

Andrea Shields, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Catering to a diverse clientele - first-time homebuyers, veterans, those moving up, or empty nesters - Andrea seamlessly navigates the real estate market.

New York City, New York Dec 21, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Andrea is a realtor at Team Shields of Keller Williams Realty River Cities in Columbus, Georgia, extending her services to the surrounding areas.

With over 35 years of experience in the real estate industry, Andrea specializes in residential and commercial properties, as well as land transactions for buyers, sellers, and investors. Her passion lies in assisting veterans, particularly first-time homebuyers, given her and her husband's military background, and takes pride in supporting her fellow service members.

In addition to her primary real estate offerings, Andrea provides various supplementary services, including new construction certification, staging services, and specialized lender programs for individuals with disabilities. She holds prestigious designations such as MRP (Military Relocation Professional), GRI (Graduate, Realtor Institute), and CNE (Certified Negotiation Expert).

Beyond her professional pursuits, Andrea actively engages in community initiatives. In 2016, she played a pivotal role in establishing the Southern Living Academy, a boys' group home, where she served as the Director upon its opening. Currently, she acts as a community liaison for the academy.

Attributing her success to a true desire to help people, Andrea strives to educate her clients about homeownership, ensuring they are well-prepared for success in their real estate endeavors. Her outstanding contributions have been recognized through accolades such as the Lifetime Member of the Circle of Excellence Award from the Georgia Association of Realtors and the Community Service Award for her role in founding the Southern Living Academy.
