

Barbara Krucko, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

With Barbara, your real estate journey begins with a dream and ends with a home.

New York City, New York Dec 22, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Barbara is a highly esteemed and seasoned real estate agent who has established herself as a trusted figure in the Connecticut real estate landscape. She is a Sales Associate at William Raveis, operating out of the office in Old Saybrook.

Catering to a diverse clientele of buyers, sellers, investors, and leaders, Barbara's expertise spans a broad spectrum of real estate services. She specializes in luxury properties, relocation, estates, short sales, and green homes, showcasing her versatility as a well-rounded agent. Her service areas cover Hartford County, New Haven County, New London County, Litchfield County, and Middlesex County, with a notable focus on towns along Route 9, stretching from Middletown to Old Saybrook.

Beyond traditional services, Barbara provides additional offerings such as move-out clean-up, improvement recommendations, and staging services. She thrives on personal connections and relationships, cherishing face-to-face interactions with people as she assists them in fulfilling their buying or selling needs.

As an Accredited Buyer's Representative, Certified Home Professional, and Seller Representative Specialist, Barbara has a proven track record of successfully guiding clients through high-value sales and savvy purchases. Her commitment to quality ensures her clients benefit from in-depth real estate knowledge, top-tier marketing, and exceptional negotiation skills.

With a reputation for professionalism, integrity, and a commitment to excellence, Barbara has garnered admiration and respect from both her peers and the community. Her dedication to exceptional customer service earned her the prestigious Excellence in Customer Service Award for the Old Saybrook Office in 2022.

Among her numerous accolades are Top Producer - Centurion awards, Diamond Society Membership, and various awards and designations from William Raveis, including the President's Club, Chairman's Club, Chairman's Elite Club, and Diamond Agent status. In 2021 and 2022, her achievements were further highlighted as she received recognition as the Top Listing Agent and Top Agent for closed units in the Old Saybrook office.

Residing and working in greater Hartford County for over 15 years, Barbara and her family have recently relocated to Old Saybrook, establishing both their home and business there. Proud parents to Emily and Maya, enrolled in the Old Saybrook Public School system, the Krucko family considers their two dogs and a cat cherished family members.

Despite the move, Barbara remains an active and devoted member of the Polish Community, maintaining her personal and business relationships in New Britain and the greater Hartford area. She continues to contribute to the community by serving as a member of the Wethersfield and Old Saybrook Chamber of Commerce and actively participating in the Polish Business Organization and the Polish National Home Organization.
