

Brenda Goff, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

“With you all the way! From the first hello to beyond the closing table.”

New York City, New York Dec 8, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Brenda currently serves as a realtor with Coldwell Banker Advantage in Apex, North Carolina. In addition to her two-decade long real estate expertise, she holds certification as a Luxury Home Marketing Specialist and serves as a Notary Public.

With a comprehensive background, Brenda excels in various aspects of real estate, including residential resale, contract negotiation, representing investment transactions for both corporate and individual investors, overseeing property management, and working closely with builders on new construction projects.

Her commitment goes beyond transactional milestones; Brenda is devoted to guiding clients from their initial introduction to the point where a property truly feels like home. Her dedication extends to the future, as she remains available to address any concerns or inquiries for her clients, their families, and acquaintances.

Brenda credits her achievements to first and foremost, God. She also credits a mentor in the real estate field, family, and friends and her real estate mentor. She was chosen for the opportunity to help lead corporate investors in their effort to build their portfolio and become a public entity. Her experience includes personal investments, property management, new construction sweat equity, working and collaborating with builders on floor plans, involvement in open houses, and various other aspects of the industry.

Brenda has consistently been awarded awards with Coldwell Banker at the international level. She earned a position in the top 10% of all sales associates globally as part of the Coldwell Banker International Diamond Society 2018, 2021 and 2022. Additionally, she received recognition through the Coldwell Banker International Sterling Society, ranking in the top 17% of all Coldwell Banker agents globally 2017, 2019, 2020.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Brenda actively engages in community service. She contributes to her church, collaborates with community volunteers for service projects, partners with small businesses to foster growth while giving back to the community, and provides additional services as needed.

In her leisure time, Brenda enjoys spending time with family and friends, exploring new destinations through travel, and engaging in mission work both within the United States and in Latin America.
