

Cynthia Upp, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Offering luxury service at every price point, Cynthia is dedicated to ensuring her clients receive the highest level of care and achieve their goals.

New York City, New York Dec 18, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Cynthia, an experienced Realtor/Broker, currently affiliated with Coldwell Banker Tomlinson, a prestigious real estate agency located in Spokane, Washington.

Proud to call Spokane her home, Cynthia possesses an intimate understanding of the community and its residents. She values Spokane's unique features, including the scenic Riverfront Park, charming local bookstores, downtown coffee shops, and world-class medical facilities.

Growing up in Seattle, Cynthia attended the University of Washington, where she earned a Degree in French. After college, she immersed herself in French culture during a year-long stay in France, appreciating the diverse experiences beyond her own.

With over two decades of residency in Spokane, Cynthia's love for the city fuels her drive to assist clients throughout the buying and selling process, ensuring a smooth and seamless experience. Clients benefit from her exceptional treatment and a personalized approach tailored to their specific goals.

Cynthia's outstanding accomplishments have placed her in the top 5% of realtors in the greater Spokane region. In her inaugural year, she earned a coveted spot among the top 100 realtors and played a crucial role in establishing and managing the Senior Transition Advocate Program, collaborating with community partners to facilitate housing transitions for seniors.

Additionally, Cynthia has shared her expertise by conducting educational classes for fellow realtors. Her success is attributed to attentive listening to clients' needs, the support of her family, effective teamwork, guidance from excellent mentors, and a strong work ethic.

Holding licenses in both Washington and Idaho, Cynthia demonstrates her dedication to serving clients in the broader region. Her decision to join Coldwell Banker Tomlinson in 2023 was influenced by the agency's esteemed reputation, global reach, and outstanding marketing resources, enabling her to deliver unparalleled service to her clients.

Involved in the special needs community, Cynthia is a Northwest Family Representative for the International Foundation for CDKL5 Research, a rare disease organization of which her family is a part. Her daughter, Olivia, was born with CDKL5 Deficiency Disorder, and she understands that it takes a village to help raise a special needs child.

On a more personal note, Cynthia speaks both English and French.
