

Exceptional Parent Magazine Provides Free Support and Information for Special Needs Families Worldwide

Clifton, New Jersey Dec 6, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Exceptional Parent Magazine is a highly regarded publication with over 50 years of dedication to serving the special needs community. It provides invaluable resources, support, and inspiration to its readers. Exceptional Parent Magazine has consistently delivered high-quality content that addresses the unique challenges faced by families with individuals of all ages who have disabilities (infancy to elderly).

The magazine's mission is to empower, educate, and encourage families, caregivers, and professionals through a comprehensive range of articles, inspirational stories, and resources. EP Magazine offers both print and digital versions to cater to their readers' preferences. The digital version is completely free, and subscribers will receive a monthly copy directly to their inbox, plus a free monthly newsletter. The digital version is equipped with universal access features, allowing individuals with visual impairments to have the content read to them. For those who prefer a physical magazine, the print version is available at an annual cost of $199, which includes shipping within the U.S.

The magazine covers numerous topics, including healthcare, education, early intervention, employment and transition, adaptive sports and recreation, personal stories of triumph over adversity, and much more. Each issue contains a Military Section, addressing the distinct challenges faced by military families with a child or veteran living with a disability. This diverse content ensures that families receive well-rounded support that addresses their unique needs. EP Magazine is dedicated to helping individuals with disabilities, along with their families and caregivers. The audience and article contributors are made up of individuals with disabilities, families, as well as professionals in education, medical, financial, and legal fields. EP Magazine promotes awareness, understanding, acceptance, and inclusion of those who have a disability.
