"You can't find better tasting Dim Sum Dumplings unless you 'Wok To China,'" declared Richard H. Davis, President, and CEO of General Tso's Chicken Corporation. Our Chinese potstickers are so delicious, you can eat a million of them, but nobody can eat just one," said Davis.

These delectable "Mongolian Beef" Dim Sum Dumplings are conveniently packaged in EZ open DINTY MOORE Style 15oz Cans, providing a hassle-free dining experience. Simply heat and serve to enjoy an authentic taste of Chinese cuisine in the comfort of your home.

The inspiration behind these dumplings dates back 1,800 years to the Han Dynasty. Legend has it that a visionary man named Zhang Zhongjian created these stuffed dumplings during a winter return to his ancestral village. Seeking to alleviate frostbite among his fellow villagers, he concocted a mixture of mutton, chili, and healing herbs, wrapping them in dough scraps and forming dumplings resembling little ears. Though the effectiveness against frostbite is uncertain, the irresistible taste of Zhang's creation became a timeless tradition that endures to this day.
