

Local Agua Dulce Companies Rally to Support the Filming of "PTSD: A Soldier's Revenge"

Hollywood, California Dec 7, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - The vibrant local business community of Agua Dulce has come together in an unprecedented show of support for the upcoming film "PTSD: A Soldier's Revenge." The film, a poignant and powerful portrayal of military veterans grappling with PTSD, stars renowned Hollywood actors Daniel Baldwin, Robert LaSardo, and Oksana Lada. This highly anticipated project is the brainchild of award-winning producer Diana Ramos-Santiago Carter of Panther Trail Films, directed by the multi-award-winning Greek American director Eleftherios Kostans, and penned by Retired LTC and Purple Heart Recipient Steve Alexander, along with military veterans Tom Anderson and Diana R. Carter.

"PTSD: A Soldier's Revenge" is a narrative rooted in true events, aiming to shed light on the often unseen battles faced by military veterans. The film's production has been bolstered by the collaborative efforts of several prominent Agua Dulce companies, each contributing their unique expertise and resources to ensure the film's success.

Army Trucks Inc, a veteran-owned company specializing in the rental of military vehicles and equipment for various industries, is playing a pivotal role. With an extensive inventory ranging from trucks to tanks and humvees, Army Trucks Inc is not only providing invaluable resources but also employing veterans, reservists, and family members of Operations Iraqi and Enduring Freedom.
