

Marcia Inklebarger, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Committed to honesty, integrity, and streamlined communication, Marcia places her clients' best interests at the forefront of her priorities.

New York City, New York Dec 26, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Marcia is an Associate Real Estate Broker and the Director of Marketing and Recruiting at Knoxville Real Estate Professionals, Inc. in Knoxville, Tennessee.

Grounded in values of honesty and integrity, Marcia finds success in helping clients achieve their real estate goals. She seamlessly transitioned to a real estate career armed with a Marketing Degree from the University of Tennessee and years of administrative experience.

When it comes to selling your Maynardville area home and moving to your dream home, Marcia serves as the expert for a successful, low-stress sale. Whether you're considering a move for privacy, a larger garage, or the option for a home office or gym, she understands the significance of this major financial transaction in your life.

Navigating the complexities of selling a home can be stressful, from preparing your home for sale to dealing with the contract phase and potential roadblocks in real estate transactions. Marcia offers a strategic plan and expert guidance to ensure a smooth experience. Working with her allows you to breathe easy and relax, as she leverages her local market knowledge to handle all the details, enabling you to focus on your move.

Employing a comprehensive marketing strategy to attract qualified buyers and secure contracts, Marcia ensures reliable communication, resourcefulness, and personalized support throughout the home selling process. Her success is attributed to her work ethic, honesty, and integrity, as she fights for her clients and works tirelessly to get the job done.

Sharing a notable client experience, Marcia recounts a transaction where diligent research and collaboration with a septic company ensured a timely closing, highlighting her commitment to client success.

"A story that comes to mind is about a client that I had the honor to represent in 4 transactions. One of the properties we sold appeared to be serviced by city water and sewer. I spent several days calling and researching to verify sewer service. Through the help of a septic company we were able to locate the septic system and the transaction closed in a timely manner, and my client was able to get into their new home."

In her leisure time, Marcia enjoys spending time with her family, traveling, reading, and savoring a generous amount of coffee.
