About The Author:

Founder and Life Coach for Eden Life Academy, Maryna made it her life purpose to help others embody their most confident selves. Through her studies in social work and psychology at the Hong Kong University, she found a new appreciation for the art of human connection and began looking back through her own life experiences to gain a new perspective.

It was important for her to understand what makes people happy, successful and creatively fulfilled. This insatiable quest on human potential prompted her to write her book Life Changing Thoughts.
