Willetton, Perth Dec 22, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - An ever-memorable O'Neill Fernandes brings proactive bass and personality back to modern indie-rock with his soulfully engaging new conceptual ear-worm 'All of Me \(Loves All of You\)'. Quickly captivating for its instrumental verses, the album goes on to bring through rhythmically alluring verses akin to the likes of the eighties rock troubadours. Great structuring and strangely mysterious yet relatable soundscapes repeatedly shift gears and strip back the essentials before rising once more toward the color and chaos of the highlighted sentiments. Starting from a Hi-Fi enthusiast to a mobile DJ to a producer and a guitarist, the profound artist is all self-taught and secured his position at the peak of success.

Songwriter and Pop music artist from Perth unites distortion and delicacy for a rather addictive celebration of honest rock. From gorgeous album storms into view with melodic and vintage pop guitar arrangements contrasting with the fall-away to a softer tone for evocative storytelling and an underlying dynamic. Music tracks from the album 'Listen to Your Heart' is a song by Swedish rock duo Roxette, which was released in September 1988 as the second single from the duo's second studio album, 'Look Sharp' (1988).
