

Scott Thomas, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Known as an advocate always ready with on-point advice or a kind ear, Scott is inspired and fueled by serving people.

New York City, New York Dec 14, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A top-tier realtor and negotiator, Scott works at Atlanta Fine Homes Sotheby's International Realty. With his outstanding skills and expertise, he addresses the real estate needs of clients across the Metro Atlanta area.

Boasting over two decades of experience in marketing, sales, and negotiation, Scott effortlessly facilitates a smooth process. He is gifted at getting beneath the surface to help clients make the right deals and sell faster, creating great experiences and relationships along the way.

With a distinguished educational background, Scott holds an MBA in Marketing & Economics from The University of Rochester. He has been a guest speaker on multiple podcasts for marketing strategy and has worked with brands such as the Coca-Cola Company, Time Warner's Cartoon Network, Cox Automotive, and Ray-Ban Sunglasses.

Before transitioning to real estate full-time, Scott elevated the marketing of small business clients, including a company that specialized in appealing property taxes for homeowners.

Passionately dedicated to real connections and intelligent business, he traded Fortune 500 companies and global brands for families and individuals searching for their next real estate solutions. His areas of specialization extend to promoting and launching properties, handling complex transactions, diffusing tension during negotiations, and forging lasting relationships.

Taught the importance of smart real estate at a young age, Scott draws on his extensive personal experiences with homeownership and investment to connect with what matters most in every real estate journey. Believing that trust begins with common ground and grows with fulfilled commitments, he values the confidence of his clients, delivering world-class service backed by the premier resources of Atlanta Fine Homes Sotheby's International Realty.

Born in New York, Scott has called Atlanta home for 25 years, appreciating the area for its genuine connection to nature, picturesque scenery, and convenient proximity to mountain or beach getaways.

Actively involved in his community, he has broken fundraising records for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society in Georgia while actively participating in various outreach initiatives such as Open Hand Atlanta and PAWS Atlanta.

When he is not working with clients, Scott finds joy in activities like being near water, snow skiing, enjoying Aspen and après-ski cocktails, exploring diverse cuisines, traveling, cooking, and spending quality time with his family, including his Hungarian hunting dog named Elsa.
