New York City, New York Jan 25, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - A determined neuroradiologist, Dr. Caramico, is a distinguished medical professional specializing in diagnostic imaging.

Throughout his academic career, his journey into the field of medicine began at the renowned Mount Sinai School of Medicine, where he earned his medical degree. Before specializing in diagnostic imaging, he gained valuable experience at Medical Diagnostic Imaging in Poughkeepsie, NY.

As part of his comprehensive medical training, Dr. Caramico completed his internship in Internal Medicine at the Christiana Care Health System in Wilmington, DE. This experience further honed his clinical skills and provided him with a well-rounded understanding of patient care.

An expert in his field, the doctor is board-certified in radiology by the American Board of Radiology (ABR). The ABR is a not-for-profit physician-led organization that oversees the certification and ongoing professional development of specialists in diagnostic radiology, interventional radiology, radiation oncology, and medical physics.

Neuroradiology is a subspecialty of radiology focusing on the diagnosis and characterization of abnormalities of the central and peripheral nervous system, spine, and head and neck using neuroimaging techniques. Neuroradiologists are doctors who focus on diagnosing conditions of the spine, neck, head, and central nervous system. They use medical equipment, such as computed tomography or magnetic resonance imaging machines, to identify problems.
