

Beckie Schultz, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Real Estate Professional

Improving the self esteem of the world, Beckie creates lasting impacts through strategic development and thoughtful negotiations in the realm of real estate.

New York City, New York Jan 3, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Beckie serves as the Real Estate Director at Self Esteem Brands, LLC situated in Woodbury, Minnesota.

Holding a Broker's License and a Degree in Paralegal Studies from an American Bar Association-approved program, Beckie possesses expertise as a real estate consultant. She thrives on challenges, leveraging them to fuel her strategic thought process and make a positive impact on others. She also takes delight in witnessing individuals invest in the well-being of others after achieving their own personal goals.

With an extensive background in the real estate industry across the Midwest, Western states of the United States, and Western Canada, Beckie has effectively overseen and guided hundreds of individuals in designated markets, managing site acquisition and negotiations for the company's active brands and aiding in existing lease-related matters.

Beyond this, she has effectively onboarded and implemented a network of local brokers for site procurement and negotiations and continuously updates these partnerships to ensure the right collaborators are connected to projects in each state or market. Beckie travels for local insights, mentors real estate coordinators & deal makers, represent the company at conferences, and leads industry presentations. Her responsibilities also include budget creation, implementing best practices, and fostering collaboration through networking with other brands and industry professionals.

Beckie's unwavering admiration for Self Esteem Brands is attributed to believing in the mission of enriching the health, wealth, and well-being of others, some notable leaders who have provided her with the necessary tools to learn and succeed, her own grit, and an exceptional team. She has played an integral role in the organization for over a decade.

Outside of real estate, she engages in sports activities like hockey and football, and she also finds pleasure in the theater, true crime, and reading.
