London, United Kingdom Jan 28, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - British twin sisters Sally A. Edwards and Sarah J. Edwards relaunch their style magazine BLAG this month, after a two year recovery from a major accident. The edition features brand new, republished and unpublished long-form content with:

Bill Hader

Bill Hader and Sarah J. Edwards in a fun, multi-topic and engaging conversation. Enjoy subjects including the creative process, filming, techniques, water and his personal journey to realising Barry, Bill dissects key scenes from the show, reveals new information on his time at SNL and educates us on treasured filmmakers. After that, Bill unveils an eclectic range of music he's currently listening to that we're sure will create a Spotify frenzy.

Bill Hader's cover features over 20 pages of conversation, portraits and incredible stills from Barry.

Dennis Hopper

Published for the first time in-full and in-depth a phone conversation Sally A. Edwards had with legend, Dennis Hopper over 20 years ago. You may wonder why print now? It's a fascinating read. "There's a calmness and honesty about Dennis Hopper discussing his work," explains Sally. "His creating and how he made things happen is nothing short of inspiring. There's an essence to the actuality of his work and the process that's missing today. In conclusion, I believe the conversation will wake-up and elicit some inspired emotion."

Barbara Kruger

To celebrate Barbara Kruger's grand show at London's Serpentine, 'THINKING OF YOU. I MEAN ME. I MEAN YOU.' we look at the artist's iconic and often imitated work.

LAUNDRY DAY

In renowned BLAG style, we bring you an in-depth feature with the gifted NYC-based five-piece, LAUNDRY DAY. A DIY band pulling out all the stops to make it. For instance, driving their own tour bus, making their own videos and designing their own merch. Sally A. Edwards had a very open and hilarious conversation with Jude, Sawyer, Etai, Henry and Henry discovering their work ethics, dreams for a better future, their eclectic taste and how vitally, they are each other's support system.

The Creativity of Film and Television

We celebrate who it takes to make films and television. Published with a stunning portfolio of stills photography, we dive into key forthcoming films and television, just ahead of awards season.

We take a look behind-the-scenes of projects of which we predict great things and celebrate the creativity and storytelling of the most cutting edge new releases, including:

A24 and Lionsgate's The Iron Claw. In addition, we speak to Courtney McBroom, Food Consultant for Apple TV's Lessons In Chemistry starring Brie Larson based on the wildly successful novel by Bonnie Garmus.

BLAG is created and cultivated to be your go-to title. Indulge in original, down-to-earth, hilarious and highly inspiring stories. Classy and funny, BLAG is your favourite antidote.
