

Brandi Pond, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

A people person, Brandi excels in creating personalized and seamless real estate experiences, building lasting connections in The Sooner State.

New York City, New York Jan 8, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Brandi is a highly accomplished real estate agent associated with Chinowth & Cohen Realtors in Owasso, Oklahoma.

With a genuine desire to simplify the real estate process, Brandi provides innovative ideas, practical solutions, and invaluable advice to support clients throughout their real estate journey. This is not merely a job for her, but a true passion rooted in her deep-seated desire to assist others.

"You need someone you can trust, who will offer advice and guidance but never pressure. I get it. I understand that completely. It's what you will get from me. It's what I've done throughout my career. Whether it was during my 15 years of teaching in high school and college or as the President of The National Disaster Life Support Education Consortium where I managed teams of doctors and emergency personnel all over the world, my focus has always been about being a source of support, education, and guidance. But never pressure. From me, you'll always get all the information you need to make an informed decision and all the space you need to choose what is best for you."

In recognition of her outstanding contributions, Brandi was honored with the 2022 Tulsa Real Producer Rise and Grind Award. She attributes her success to her unwavering commitment to authenticity and honesty, principles that serve as the bedrock of her business.

For Brandi, it is not solely about financial gain; it is about making a positive impact on people's lives and fostering meaningful relationships. She takes immense pride in delivering exceptional customer service and cherishes the opportunity to meet new individuals and constantly expand her knowledge.
