Cracks Open Decades of Hushed Innuendo Real People & Real Stories of Encounters with Non-Human Intelligence

For decades people who've had close encounters with UAPS (Unidentified Aerial Phenomena) and non-human beings have been marginalized and ridiculed. In a time when NASA & Congress have been assembling their study teams and data to move scientific understanding of this phenomenon— It's long past time for the Real Truth To Come Out!

Breaking The Silence, is Steve Neill's spellbinding, and riveting expose of Real People having Real Experiences with unidentified phenomena and non-human beings.

BTS Episode 1 Daphne's Story shatters barriers and soundwaves and brings to light encounters never seen before due to the stigma surrounding this subject.

This show depicts encounters with UAPs, UFOs, and non-human intelligence as well as interviews and reenactments of real people who have the strength to come forward and break this silence without fear. Hear first-hand accounts from a Navy officer and his wife Marilyn, Robert Salas, Whitley Streiber and more tell their never-before-heard first-hand encounters.

BreakingTheSILENCE airs monthly on the first and third Saturdays at 6:00 pm PST. Every Friday Steve Neill interviews experts and authors on this riveting phenomenon in a Livestream that the public can interact with and get answers to their questions.

This show takes stories to new heights never seen before. Hear first encounter stories from:

Robert Salas, A Former Military Officer who experienced a nuclear missile shutdown event, as well as an encounter he had with his wife, Marilyn.

James P. Lough, A Retired Government attorney discusses his encounter. Writer of Threat To The Body Politic and more...
