

Caravans in the Sun Announces the Launch of Saydo Manhattan

A New Residential Park in Costa Del Sol, Spain

Stoke on Trent, Staffordshire Jan 12, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Caravans in the Sun is proud to unveil Saydo Manhattan, its latest residential park set in Spain's picturesque Andalusian countryside. Opening for reservations on Friday, January 12th, 2024, Saydo Manhattan offers a unique living experience influenced by the iconic Manhattan streets. This exclusive launch features just 8 plots, marking the first phase in what is anticipated to be Spain's most desirable residential park.

Nestled near the idyllic villages of Mollina, Fuente De Piedra and Humilladero, Saydo Manhattan's strategic location provides easy access to Malaga and Granada airports, and it's just a short drive to the sun-kissed beaches of Costa del Sol.

This initial offering at Saydo Manhattan includes 8 premium plots on Harrison Street, each covering a generous area of 256m². These plots are thoughtfully positioned to offer residents both a sense of community and personal space, with the wider development set to feature a range of lifestyle amenities such as a pool, bar, and restaurant.

Building on Saydo Park's Success

Building on the success of its fully occupied sister park, Saydo Park, Saydo Manhattan promises to be Spain's next top residential park destination. Plans for 2024 include introducing a communal swimming pool, restaurant, and reception, alongside a variety of dining and socialising options at its sister park during the development phase.

Residents can enjoy nearby golf courses, horseback riding, cycling, and walking trails. The development's close proximity to local cultural and leisure spots makes it an ideal choice for those who cherish an active and engaging lifestyle, with the quiet of the countryside and sun of the Mediterranean.

"We are thrilled to invite you to Saydo Manhattan. This park is not just about providing a home, it's about offering a lifestyle that our residents dream of, this park is going to be the talk of Spain!" says Fernando, Park Owner, of Saydo Manhattan.

"We invite everyone to explore this unique opportunity with Caravans In The Sun and discover the perfect blend of the Mediterranean, nature, and park life that Saydo Manhattan has to offer," says Clark, Director of Caravans In The Sun.
